STATE CDA ELIGIBILITY FOR NCDA STATE CDA BENEFITS

Summary:

The purpose of this document is to outline the eligibility requirements for state CDAs to take advantage of the benefits NCDA provides to state CDAs. Some of these benefits include yearly state CDA grants, reduced NCDA conference registration fee for state CDA President, state CDA awards and previously recorded NCDA webinars for state CDA use.

State CDA Eligibility Requirements:

- The state CDA President is required to be a NCDA member. This membership can be paid by the state CDA or by the individual. The intent of this membership requirement is to ensure the state CDA President is knowledgeable about NCDA to better inform the state membership.
- State CDA Presidents or designated state CDA officer should complete all information inquires such as surveys, end of year state leadership report, etc. by the requested deadline.

Being a state CDA chapter comes with responsibilities and benefits and your communication and cooperation is important to maintaining the quality of state CDAs. We hope each state CDA will maintain eligibility for the NCDA benefits listed below by complying with the two eligibility requirement listed above.

- Yearly state CDA grants
- Reduced NCDA conference registration fee for state CDA President
- State CDA awards
- Previously recorded NCDA webinars for state CDA use
- State leadership training at the conference
- Listing on the NCDA website; link to your state division website
- Marketing lists of NCDA members in your state/region
- Assistance with marketing your events through NCDA communications (website posts, marketing e-bulletins, etc.)
- Speakers Bureau
- Webinar Recordings (There is a charge for this.)
- Advocacy via the NCDA Government Relations Consultant
- State Bylaws consultation
- Leadership Academy opportunities
