

NCDA STUDENT SUCCESS STORY

Denise Randall

About Denise

- Pronouns: She/I
- Personal Identity: Female

- Program: Troy University Montgomery, M.S., CMHC
- Hometown: Montgomery, AL

- Connect with Denise on LinkedIn

How NCDA Supported Professional Development

"My current graduate program offers certifications in addictions and substance use, rehabilitation, and school counseling, but there is little specialized training for career counseling. Membership in the NCDA affords opportunities for professional growth and development as a student and beyond."

Advice for Grad Students Joining NCDA

"I encourage graduate students who have a passion for career development and advocacy to take advantage of the many opportunities offered by the NCDA."