

The Swim

I once swam on that sunny day,
When it all faded away.

The coach gave me a pat on the back,
Then there was a big smack.

I dive in. I brush by the water.
I go faster and faster.

Then it all stops.
I touch the wall, the timer pops.

The crowd cheers and says HOORAY!
So I guess I will get to swim another day!
